

Key: A
capo: 2

Just One Step
(c) 1994 Tupelo Kenyon
(P) 1994 Arctic Wingsong Publishing BMI

Calico Bluff, AR
May 21, 1992

G C G
Unless you know where you'd like to go, how could you possibly get there
A7 D D7
And until you know when it's time to go, how could you arrive on time
G
Cause to get to where you're goin', gotta get up and go
C G
When the time is right buddy, you're just gonna know
C G E7 A7 D7 G
Every journey begins with just one step, and it all begins in your mind
Every journey begins with just one step, and it all begins in your mind

Break (verse structure)

I'm just sittin' on my duff, well enough is enough, why don't I get up and get movin'
Which is which, am I asleep at the switch, am I dreamin', or am I awake
Maybe tomorrow instead, I could wake up dead
And I'd wonder, what have I been doin'
And it really makes me wonder, what on earth am I doin' for heaven's sake
And it really makes me wonder, what on earth am I doin' for heaven's sake

Break (verse structure)

Em
Well, I should do this, and I should do that
C D G
It seems that everybody's got their opinion
Em
And it's everyone's right to fight their private fight
A7 D
To be captain of their personal dominion
Em
And neither me nor you has a single clue
C Cm G
To what the other one really should do
C G E7 A7 D7 G
We're all learnin' as we go, so don't ya should on me, and I won't should on you...
C G E7 A7 D7 G
ooh ..... No, don't ya should on me, and I won't should on you

Break - speed up tempo - play first half of first verse - sing second half